A Romantic Winter Wedding Package

10 guests*

For all the romance and elegance of a Tuscan wedding without the high-season price tag, Wedding with a View offers you a chance to plan outside the box. Winter in Florence is cozy and charming--- especially when you and your guests are living it up in a gorgeous historical palace in the heart of the city.

Package includes:

- Blessing ceremony (not legally binding) with English-speaking officiator of your choice (secular, Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, etc.) at one of Florence's most famous noble palaces. You will be put in touch with your officiator prior to the wedding day to discuss your ideas for the ceremony.
- Bride's bouquet and buttonhole for groom
- Post-ceremony cocktail hour with prosecco, white wine, fruit juices and canapes
- Reception meal at palace for ten guests, which will include appetizer, one rice/ pasta course, one meat/ fish course, traditional Italian wedding cake (millefoglie), mineral water, table wine and spumante for toasts.
- Classic table setting with floral centerpiece and tea light candles
- Solo instrument (violin, cello, guitar) to play during ceremony and cocktail
- iPod-compatible speaker setup for after dinner
- 4 hour photography service (one photographer) with high-resolution DVD sent to you following the wedding day
- On-site coordination from one of our experienced, English-speaking wedding planners

Total price: €5,200.00 (includes VAT and service)

*the price for each extra guest will be €150.00

a legally-binding civil ceremony at Florence's town hall can be added to this package upon request; please ask for pricing

Offer valid for bookings made before 11.30.2010
